

COLLEGE FUND OF PINELLAS COUNTY, INC.
PRIVACY POLICY

March 9, 2011

The College Fund of Pinellas County, Inc. maintains the website <http://www.collegefundpinellas.org/> for the purposes of (1) informing potential grant applicants of the requirements and procedures for applying for a grant, and (2) informing potential donors of the merits of contributing to the organization.

The College Fund of Pinellas County, Inc. may be contacted by US Mail addressed to:

College Fund of Pinellas County, Inc.

P.O. Box 673

Clearwater, FL 33757

Or by electronic mail addressed to:

info@collegefundpinellas.org

No personal information is collected from visitors to our website; however, statistical information which will assist us in improving the site's ability to reach potential applicants and donors is collected. These statistics include: total of daily hits and average daily hits per page; total number of hits sorted by hour, day, week, month and year; the date, time and ISP of the last 100 visitors to our site; which pages site visitors viewed and for how long; where visitors to our site came from on the Internet (search engines, other sites; the ISP (Internet Service Provider) information of visitors; and which browsers visitors are using to view site, at what screen resolution, and if visitors support Java and Javascript. This statistical information is shared only with the directors of the College Fund of Pinellas County, Inc. in order to evaluate and improve the effectiveness of the website.

Should the student choose to print and submit the "Request for Application" form available on the website, the student personal information provided is shared only with the directors of the College Fund of Pinellas County, Inc. in order to evaluate and select qualified students for receipt of an Application Form. By printing, signing and submitting the Request for Application form via regular US mail, applicants give their permission for their personal information thus provided to be shared only with the directors of the College Fund of Pinellas County, Inc. for the purpose of determining the applicant's eligibility to compete for a College Fund grant.

Visitors to our website will not be automatically enrolled to receive emails or solicitations of any sort, and will not be placed on any distribution list. Postal and email addresses and telephone numbers provided on the Request for Information form will be used only by the directors of the College Fund of Pinellas County, Inc. and only to request clarification of information submitted by potential applicants, to mail Application Forms to eligible applicants, or to inform ineligible applicants of their non-selection to receive an Application Form. The College Fund of Pinellas County, Inc. will not sell, share, rent or otherwise transfer information provided on the Request for Application form to any other organization or to any other persons.